OSES BROWN SCHOOL. Providence, R. L. opened this fall with an enrolment of 236 pupils. One hundred and thirty of these are registered in the lower school, which establishes a new record for this department. Several changes and additions to the teaching staff have been made this year. Among the new teachers are W. W. Faircloud, Bowdofn, '68, German; W. J. Young, Haverford, '11, mathematics; R. W. Totten, Lafayette, '14, history and English; P. F. Whitten, Amherst, '15, physical director; C. L. Olds, Harvard, '65, intermediate grades of lower school.

The last meeting of the council the chairman of the relief committee reported that more boys than ever had taken the voluntary pledges, and that the collections per week are larger than last year. This is in keeping, the boys feel, with the increasing needs created by the war.

The proximity of the Palisades appeals to the Boy Sceuts of the school, who are organized as Troop 134, Boy Scouts of America. Last Saturday a group of the scouts, together with a number of the younger boys, had a real family director; C. L. Olds, Harvard, '65, intermediate grades of lower school.

SAINT PAUL'S SCHOOL.

During the summer the class of 1916 of Saint Paul's School, Garden City, L. L. prepared and published a neat leather covered note book cailed "The Saint Paul's Handbook," which was ready for distribution to all members of the school at the beginning of the fall term. It is of a convenient size for useful information, besides space for adily memoranda. The school calendar, athletic schedules, recitation programme, the daily routine, hints to new boys, the school cheers and songs, school customs and past athletic records are some of its features.
